Lalaine Policar, thank you for your kind attention & dedication to the PCBC

Let us all take a moment to thank Madam President, Lalaine Policar, for her two years of service as President for the PCBC. Always soft-spoken and considerate, Lalaine rose to meet the challenges on behalf of the club every time. Lalaine successfully dealt with circumstances not encountered by any previous club president, i.e.; coordinating and conducting club business via the internet, analyzing and assessing health concerns related to each event that the club undertook. She did all of this with composure and allowing only what is in the best interest of the club to guide her judgment.

We applaud Lalaine on her steadfast dedication in seeking solutions and developing practices that allowed our 2020 Specialty to go forward. Lalaine's nursing background came into play as a real asset to the club during these difficult moments. We can only imagine how difficult it must have been to take in a myriad of differing opinions and find a middle ground that recognized the risks involved while managing the overwhelming need of the fanciers to feel as though the pandemic was not getting the better of them.

Finally, we thank Lalaine for being the right person for the occasion. Lalaine, we appreciate your welcoming personality allowing all members to feel they are part of this family. You made sure that we were at our best at all times. Thank you for your kind attention and service to the PCBC when it was needed the most.

Sand to Sea show now set to take place on February 26th, 27th & 28th, 2021; cross your fingers.

At the time of this publication, the Sand to Sea show is set to take place on its new dates of February 26th, 27th & 28th, 2021. We hope that you all can make the specialties for the Friday morning show hosted by the Bulldog Club of Greater San Diego and judged by the Honorable, Mr. Brandon Edge. The afternoon show will be supported by BCA Div. III. and judged by the Honorable, Mrs. Karen S. McFarlane.

BULLPUP

This dog show spectacular shall be held at the Willowbrook Equestrian Center & Riding Club (“Willowbrook”) which is located just southeast of Desert Hot Springs at 20555 Mountain View Road, Desert Hot Springs, CA 92241. Information is posted by Jack Bradshaw Superintendents and it has already opened the entry submissions for this show. With only 600 entries allowed you better get your bulldog entered. There were quite a few people that submitted their entries for the Riverside shows this weekend well before the closing date and were shut out because of the high volume of entries. We will see you at Willowbrook.

PCBC's 2021 Specialty Show

The PCBC has tentatively scheduled its 2021 Club Specialty show for September 26th & 27th to be held at the Los Alamitos Race Course.

The PCBC pushed the show from its traditional April, dates to September out of an abundance of caution.

The PCBC hopes that scheduling the show further into the year will allow for mass vaccinations to take place. Therefore, the PCBC hopes that by choosing a date in late September it can avoid the current predicament that all clubs seem to be in and that is having to reschedule one show after another.

At this moment the PCBC is waiting to hear back from DIV. BCA III to see if it will hold a show on Friday, September 25, 2021, making it a four-show weekend.

Details to follow as circumstances develop.
